

PETER KUITENBROUWER

45 Rusholme Drive, Toronto, Ontario M6J 3K1

Phone: 416.530.0185

Email: peter.kuitenbrouwer@utoronto.ca

peterkuitenbrouwer.com

EXPERIENCE

National Post, Toronto, since 1997

Eight years as a local columnist for the National Post and nine years writing news and features for the Financial Post. Reporting from Yemen, Turks & Caicos, Netherlands. Four years as a monthly guest on French TVO.

Journalist, Toronto, 1994-1996

Wrote a city news column for Eye Weekly, while contributing to Video News International, Toronto Life, Maclean's, Chatelaine, and GEO.

Producer, Radio-Canada, New York 1991-1994

Worked in French in Radio-Canada's New York and United Nations bureaus. Produced 75 stories for Quebec television on New York news. Wrote for Canadian Press and Southam News.

Reporter, The Gazette, Montreal, 1988-1991

Four years at this newspaper included covering the Oka crisis and sharing the Southam News award for coverage of the massacre of women at Montreal's Ecole Polytechnique.

Reporter, The Mexico City New, 1986-1987

Working in Spanish, reported city news under famed editor Pete Hamill.

Founder, Montreal Mirror, 1985

National Bureau Chief and Quebec Bureau Chief, Canadian University Press, 1984-1986

Edited the national wire service and taught journalism to university students.

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Arts in political science, McGill University, 1984
- Canadian Securities Course, 1998

BOOKS

- Toronto, a City Becoming (Key Porter, 2008), contributor
- 7 Secrets of Highly Successful Kids (Lobster Press, 2006), translated into Korean, Indonesian and Arabic
- Our Song: The Story of O Canada, the Canadian National Anthem (Lobster Press, 2004, paperback, 2008)

LANGUAGES

English, French, Spanish

REFERENCES AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST.